50 Steps to a Healthier Borough

Health and Wellbeing Strategy
2020-2023

People at the Heart of Everything We Do

Foreword

Everyone in Newham has been impacted by COVID-19. It has been tough and it continues to be tough. But among these difficult times, I have been overwhelmed by extraordinary individuals and organisations, who have stepped up and focused their efforts on improving the way Newham deals with, and recovers, from COVID-19.

We have learnt that improving the health of every individual within the Newham community is more important than it ever has been.

With our 50 Steps to a Healthier Newham we can make a significant change. But we simply can't do it without the support from organisations and individuals. We are reliant on key partners to drive each approach forward, and if we can put the necessary steps in place we can all deliver lasting change for Newham. It really is the time to act and make a difference. So, what is your step going to be?

Mayor Rokhsana Fiaz

Co-Chair Newham Health and Wellbeing Board

As a GP in Newham, part of my role is to treat ill-health. However, a big part is also to identify opportunities where my colleagues and I in primary care can encourage good health, whether it's providing patients with the right access to information or encouraging them to get involved in healthy activities. By looking at health in this way, my role begins to have many dimensions and the impact I can have on improving the community's health significantly increases.

This change in approach, which can be applied across any organisation, is also important in tackling the inequalities that exist within the Newham community. It's this thinking that underpins our 50 Steps to a Healthier Newham.

We can all be healthier. We can all identify ways we can make our own lives healthier and support those around us to be healthier too. Every step helps. What's your step going to be?

Dr Muhammad Waqqas Naqvi

Co-Chair Newham Health and Wellbeing Board

			Step 50:	Maximise the contributions of Newham's Anchor institutions to tackle socio-economic inequalities	83

Introduction

Our health is our wealth. With good health – both mental and physical – we can thrive at school, at work, in our family and community lives. When poor health takes its toll we suffer, not just from the pain and distress but the knock on to so many aspects of our lives.

Yet we can all be healthier. By taking a number of steps, both in our own lives, and in supporting those around us, together we can create a healthier place for us all.

While health fads come and go in the media, there is a mountain of evidence of what will really make a difference to our own health and the health of our communities.

This strategy was primarily developed pre COVID-19, through discussion and debate through the latter half of 2019 and the first weeks of 2020. However, COVID-19 has hit our country and our borough like a steam train, with significant loss of life and deep lasting impacts on people's health, social and economic wellbeing. There are some very specific actions we need to take to respond to this challenge. But in many ways the pandemic has also shone an intense spotlight on the very same issue we were focused on before – health inequalities. These inequalities are both between Newham and other areas and within the borough itself. They were already in the forefront of our plans but the disparities in COVID-19 outcomes experienced by those on low incomes and in ethnic minority communities challenge us to go further with our ambitions.

The challenges

These challenges should not be underestimated. Health is shaped first and foremost by the social and economic circumstances into which people are born, grow, live, work and age. While Newham is rapidly changing, we still face many challenges. There are many who face high levels of poverty, difficult working conditions – including low levels of pay, an unhealthy urban environment in terms of air quality, access to food, housing provision, and many other factors that can damage health. Our life expectancy is below the national average, and our healthy life expectancy – the years of good health we can expect to live – is a lot lower – for both men and women. This points to a significant burden of both mental and physical ill health in our borough.

We also have a rapidly changing borough. The transient nature of some of our population presents a range of challenges both to improving health and to assessing the impact we are making across the population, particularly for those with the poorest health.

But we have many assets too as a borough. Fantastic parks for an inner city area, bustling sport and leisure facilities, brilliant schools, committed community, voluntary and faith organisations, fruit and veg markets selling high quality affordable produce, a growing economy, excellent NHS resources, and amazing people across all these, to name just a few.

Determinants of health

Our health services are of course vitally important but research shows that between 50 to 80% of our health is determined by other factors. To meet this challenge, this strategy has identified a number of ambitions:

- To create a healthier environment for our residents
- To ensure the settings where people spend their lives as workers, students and patients, promote health in the best possible way
- To make sure our services work together around our residents and patients' needs – services are inclusive and equitable, and support people holistically and preventatively around the factors underlying their health and wellbeing

- To support the further building of social capital and community life to enable our residents to better help themselves and others
- To tackle poverty and inequality which underpins so many inequalities in health

Our principles

In doing so our ambition is to live up to a number of principles which run across the strategy:

- To use all the levers we have at our disposal to improve physical and mental health and wellbeing, including working in partnership wherever possible
- To understand and address issues of equity and inclusivity in our work
- To involve those impacted in decision making whether at an individual or community level, ensuring our residents are at the heart of everything we do
- To use evidence to invest in long term and lasting change, focusing both on immediate impact but also recognising that some of the benefits will be years into the future

Our strategy

This strategy consists of a number of sections:

- Part 1 is our commitments – our 50 steps – to improving health and wellbeing over the next three years. These are divided into 12 priority areas. Some are about the services we deliver to people, children, young people, adults, and families. Many are about creating a healthier social and physical environment
- Part 2 sets out the health challenges we face as Newham – the evidence base that underpins the need for the 50 steps. We consider people's whole life journey from pregnancy through to older age. We look at both mental and physical health, at the wider determinants of health such as inequalities and the environment but also more immediate influences on health such as smoking, physical activity and access to services

The strategy will be supported by an outcomes framework which we will measure success, and an implementation plan.

We will also co-produce an ongoing campaign – a collective call to action to everyone living and working in our borough to take a role, however small or big, in becoming part of this journey. We know many people in their communities, schools, and businesses are doing a lot already – and this strategy wants to build on this energy. In developing this strategy we have spoken with different people and organisations who share the same goal and we know we can achieve far more if we work together.

The priorities

The priorities of this strategy do not sit in isolation – they are part of a wider set of ambitions for Newham that our Mayor continues to champion. Health is a major part of our commitment to community wealth building, for example. Developing an inclusive economy, strong and invested in communities, and good jobs will all benefit health, and improving the health of our population will support these in turn. The climate emergency is of paramount importance to us too, and we know that the steps we need to take for the long term health of our planet will bring immediate short term dividends to the health of our population. The NHS long term plan is committed to prevention – it is best for our residents and patients – but it is also mission critical to having a sustainable NHS as our population grows and ages. It also sits alongside the commitments of Newham's NHS to provide high quality, prevention oriented and inclusive health services committed to tackling health inequalities.

50 steps

The scope of these 50 steps is wide. However, they do not capture the detail that sits in individual strategies and action plans focused on particular issues. From youth safety, to homelessness, air quality, to mental health, there are many focused plans for targeting particular issues.

This strategy is not about particular conditions or health issues but focused much more on the drivers and determinants. But that lens of the major drivers of early death or poor physical and mental health is important too, and as the table shows they are addressed right across the 50 steps.

Our 50 steps is a call to action to ourselves as the Health and Wellbeing Board for Newham and to the wider borough to draw on the amazing assets and opportunities we have locally. This is not a short term fix – together we can galvanise action to bring about lasting change.

Newham Changemakers

We have chosen individuals and organisations who are going above and beyond to support the health and wellbeing of the community to represent one of our 50 steps. We call them Changemakers. Changemakers sit at the heart of our campaign. They demonstrate how a change in mind set and a focus on health and wellbeing can be adopted by all. There really is a step for everyone.

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Rokhsana Fiaz
Mayor of Newham

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

As Mayor, Rokhsana is responsible for leading and representing the borough. She works with local partners, such as the police, health and voluntary sectors, as well as other key stakeholders and business partners, to achieve a shared vision for the borough, delivering the best for Newham residents and businesses.

“Recent times have shown us the importance of health. With good health – both mental and physical – we can thrive in everything we do. Our health has a direct impact on our family, education, employment and our community. This is why it is so important that everyone in Newham has equal opportunities to stay healthy. We are fully committed to supporting the health of our borough and through the 50 steps, we will bring people and organisations together.”

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Jason Strelitz
Director of Public Health

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

As Director of Public Health, Jason and his team are responsible for determining the overall vision and objectives for public health in Newham. His role is to ensure that health is a priority for everyone.

“COVID-19 has impacted everyone’s lives. Our plan focuses on prevention, as well as being able to react effectively to incidents and outbreaks. Not only must we focus on the direct impact of the infection but we must also consider the indirect effects on physical and mental health, social and economic wellbeing.”

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Fawn Bess-Leith

Specialist Health Visitor Perinatal and Infant Mental Health

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Fawn works with women and their partners experiencing moderate to severe mental health difficulties from pregnancy through to the first year following birth. She is also part of Newham Kids Time Workshop (KTW) team.

Fawn's passion and enthusiasm has helped lay the foundation for both early identification and intervention to support families experiencing mental health problems.

"I am passionate to work together with local communities to tackle the wider determinants of health and improve mental wellbeing so individuals can achieve their full potential. A joined up approach towards the community's health and wellbeing will no doubt have a positive far-reaching impact."

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Deborah Reid

Best Start in Life Children Centre
Lead

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Deborah's focus is on improving the health and wellbeing of families with children under the age of five, with a particular emphasis on the most disadvantaged families. This is accomplished through outreach at clinics, breastfeeding support, stay and play and working with health visitors.

Deborah has created and worked with many organisations to get the message across to families that a healthy lifestyle is incredibly important.

“Newham is one of the most deprived boroughs with an alarmingly high number of obese adults and children. Teaching children how to eat healthy at a young age is likely to have a positive impact on them throughout their entire life. We all need to work together to ensure this message reaches as many families as possible, in a consistent way.”

To get involved with this step, contact ashlee.teakle@newham.gov.uk or kelley.web-martin@newham.gov.uk.

05

Improve rates of childhood immunisations

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Develop and implement a borough wide immunisation action plan
- Use data, monitoring and evaluation tools to inform decision making
- Map Newham's immunisation system to understand current processes for delivery and how this can be improved
- Strengthen the availability, accessibility and acceptability of immunisation delivery
- Use communication tools to disseminate timely information about immunisations

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Dr Farzana Hussain

GP Principal and Clinical Director for Newham Central 1

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

As a local GP, a big part of Farzana's role is to ensure the younger members of the community are kept safe from infectious diseases through vaccinations. London has a low uptake of childhood vaccinations and her job involves communicating with parents about how important it is to immunise their children.

“We want to make sure that the very youngest of our residents have the best chance of being healthy and avoid the consequences of diseases, which should only be read about in history books. Vaccines are our weapon to combat these illnesses but parents have to be proactive and ensure their children get vaccinated when they're meant to. It not only benefits our children but it also stops the spread of these diseases in our community – protecting other vulnerable community members.”

To get involved with this step, contact ashlee.teakle@newham.gov.uk or shahreen.hossei@nhs.net.

06

Support school readiness for all children

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Define Newham’s definition of school readiness and develop a borough wide school readiness action plan
- Increase uptake of Newham’s free early education entitlement for all 3 and 4 year olds, and eligible 2 year olds
- Increase the number of 2-2.5 year integrated reviews
- Work with early years’ settings, the CDS team (children with complex/additional needs) and parents/guardians to encourage and support out-of-school learning, including learning within the home
- Expand Newham’s offer of support and strengthen referral pathways so that all children can access the support they need to prepare them for school
- Expand the Healthy Early Years London (HEYL) programme

TRACKING PROGRESS

- Percentage uptake of free early education entitlement

WHO IS INVOLVED

- Newham Council, including 0-19 Children’s Health Service and Early Years

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Sarah Porter
Headteacher

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Sarah is Headteacher at Kay Rowe Nursery School and Children’s Centre, which is a maintained nursery school. This type of school is part of Newham education history and has been promoting early years education for nearly 100 years. The schools are funded by the Greater London Authority and Newham Council to work as supportive mentors for private childcare providers.

“We know from long term research that if children get access to good quality early years education with trained practitioners, they will have better opportunities and life chances later on. However, we also know that early years education needs to be high quality and this is why the nursery schools are so important to the health and wellbeing of the community. I am really proud of our seven nursery schools who thrive to deliver excellent care for Newham’s children.”

To get involved with this step, contact ashlee.teakle@newham.gov.uk or kirsty.reed@newham.gov.uk.

Strengthen partnerships across local authority, Clinical Commissioning Group, maternity, and Voluntary, Community and Faith Sectors to ensure a joined up approach to support families

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Map the offer and referral pathways for services and ensure there is a consistent offer for 0-5 year olds and their families
- Strengthen multi-agency working between health, education and social care
- Expand the function of children's centre staff to include supporting families outside of the venue
- Expand Newham's social prescribing offer to include services for 0-5 year olds and their family

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Mavis Wenham

Independent Consultant Health, Care, Community and Wellbeing

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Mavis works and volunteers for a range of community sector, informal and statutory organisations and agencies to develop innovative and community-based projects, programmes and user/patient led initiatives.

“As a black woman, parent, carer and community representative I see it as my responsibility to voice my opinion and help remove inequalities that might exist within health and wellbeing services provided in Newham. I want to ensure that equality, justice, transparency and fairness are fully and robustly woven in from a whole community perspective.”

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKERS

Ben Levinson
Head Teacher

Florina St Marthe
Senior Youth Worker

Irshad, Youssef, Neo and Luis
Young Health Champions

Neo Clunis
Young Facilitator, Aston Mansfield

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKERS

Ben

Ben is Head Teacher of Kensington Primary School in East Ham, where 660 children attend. Ben also works alongside the Department of Education to support the wellbeing of education staff nationally and has also helped the Youth Sport Trust and BUPA Foundation create the Well Schools movement.

“We want our school to be a place everyone loves to be and health is an important aspect of that. We are all painfully aware of the physical and mental health challenges our young people face. Additionally, the vast majority of the time, when a child finds learning difficult, it can be linked to their emotional or physical health. The 50 steps provides the ideal framework for all schools to get involved to achieve one of our common aims – a child that learns about health will be better equipped for adult life.”

Florina

Florina is a Senior Worker at Shipman Youth zone, Newham Youth Empowerment Service. The service provides workshops, experiences and opportunities to learn and develop on topics around health and wellbeing.

The work Florina undertakes is crucial in enabling young people to develop skills for their own social, emotional, personal and social development, as well as practical skills such as cooking and exercise. Florina’s goal is to help provide them with skills now that will help shape their lives in the longer term when it comes to adult relationships, work, training and general health.

“By working together to look after one another to achieve healthy bodies and minds, our community will become stronger, healthier and happier. And that is a goal we can all aspire to.”

Irshad, Youssef, Neo and Luis

The Young Health Champions was established following research completed by the council’s Youth Empowerment Service exploring the issues young people are worried about.

With the help of voluntary organisations, a group of 12 young people designed the Young Health Champions programme, which reaches out to the younger members of the community.

“As champions, we are here to share information between young people and the council. As young people, we have specific challenges and issues when it comes to health. We are a group which is often overlooked when services are being developed or information is sent out. 50 steps is a way for us, as young people, to participate in a borough wide strategy for the first time, to let everyone know that we are doing our part to make Newham healthier.”

Neo

In between studies, Neo works as a Young Facilitator for Aston Mansfield, a local organisation that supports children, young people and families. Using an integrated and community focused approach, their mission is to make lasting change, offering opportunity, community and inspiration. Neo’s role involves coordinating and helping young people to achieve a common objective, such as the execution of a social action project.

“Aston Mansfield gives young people the opportunity to make a genuine and positive difference in their area. More people should get involved in supporting the health of the community because action has to start somewhere. People can feel that things need to change but not do anything - the 50 steps gives people the vehicle to be able to make that change.”

Suus-anna Harskamp

Primary Resilience Training Lead and Specialist Teacher

Becky Dawson

Resilience Training lead and Secondary Specialist

Jon Wells

Clinical Psychologist

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKERS

To get involved with this step, contact racha.fayad@newham.gov.uk or becky.dawson@newham.gov.uk.

Suus-anna and Becky

Suus-anna and Becky work at HeadStart Newham, a mental health service improving lives for young people and families in Newham.

Suus-anna and Becky work closely with schools, offering coaching and training for the whole school community. The goal is to ensure the school has a system in place for identifying young people who could benefit from additional support to improve their resilience and to develop understanding of the fundamental importance of supporting pupils' emotional needs alongside academic needs.

“Our young people are facing things we weren't aware of, things that as adults we are still learning to manage. It is imperative that the role of education is central in supporting and educating children holistically. A system without stigmatising labels and with a full and genuine understanding of the importance of relationships and their impact will have a positive impact on everyone.”

Suus-anna

“I believe that if all adults working with young people have a good understanding of how to support wellbeing in schools and other settings then this will have a positive impact for young people. If we can support young people in the short term, then in the long term they will become confident and resilient adults.”

Becky

Jon

Jon is a Clinical Psychologist working at Newham CAMHS with young people and their families as the service's Psychological Therapies Lead. He has worked in East London for 20 of his 27 years working in the field of mental health.

He helps develop and strengthen links between different organisations to help them work together in reaching this goal, learning about what helps young people by encouraging professionals to listen to, and learn from, them and their families so that the help they are offered remains relevant, accessible and effective.

“I am passionate about developing community approaches to helping young people access the support they need if they are experiencing mental health difficulties.”

Develop a public health approach to youth safety

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

Contribute to the implementation of the Youth Safety Board strategy particularly for:

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Venetta Edwards

Detached Youth Worker

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Venetta works for Newham Brighter Futures, a Newham Youth Empowerment Service. It has created a universal service that provides positive activities and a wraparound service that supports the positive development of young people's health, wellbeing and resource.

Venetta works as part of a detached team which goes into the community to form relationships with young people who may not be engaged in any service. She listens to young people's voices and design projects that reflect their needs.

"I hope to inspire young people to make changes within their lives for the better. Even if I don't get to personally see it, I hope that something I said or showed them stays with them. I hope to improve the opportunities for communities that do not or cannot access services by themselves."

To get involved with this step, contact racha.fayad@newham.gov.uk or cassandra.beckford@newham.gov.uk.

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Siobhan Parker

Community Nursery Nurse and Public Health Programme Lead

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Siobhan works in the school health service, supporting the delivery of screening programmes, the National Child Measurement Programme (NCMP) and the vision and hearing screening in Newham schools.

Siobhan identifies and improves the health gaps that exist, and listens to local residents so that she can support them to achieve their own health goals.

“Everyone should have access to health care and education. The screening programmes help us support parents and ultimately reduce health inequalities. By bringing the community together and encouraging local businesses to invest in the young people and families, supporting sporting and leisure activities, we can create a borough that promotes and encourages a healthy lifestyle.”

To get involved with this step, contact racha.fayad@newham.gov.uk OR siobhan.parker@newham.gov.uk.

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKERS

Esther Salimon

Specialist Clinical Lead Nurse

Symone Lemonius

Young Carer's Health Coordinator

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKERS

Esther

Esther works as a public health nurse for children and young people – assisting in promoting, maintaining and improving the health outcomes of those in her care and the community around them.

A big part of Esther's role is to listen to the needs of children and young people and improve their accessibility to professionals within the necessary services.

“Supporting the health and wellbeing of the community is important to me, as I have seen in practice the vital role health plays in educating and empowering individuals. I believe community for children and young people rests on involvement, connection and togetherness.”

To get involved with this step, contact racha.fayad@newham.gov.uk or simone.lemonius@newham.gov.uk.

Symone

Symone is an advocate for young carers between the age of 5 and 18 who care for a member of their family or neighbour who have a mental illness, disability and/or drug/alcohol misuse.

Symone's role helps to provide young carers with universal and bespoke support to minimise the impact being a young carer has on their health and wellbeing.

“If services can work together, we can effectively make a positive change within Newham. To make it healthier we must start by listening to the voices of our community. We do not want our children and young people to suffer in silence.”

To get involved with this step, contact racha.fayad@newham.gov.uk or simone.lemonius@newham.gov.uk.

PRIORITY 3:

Supporting people around the determinants of their health

Steps 13-16

Support every resident around the determinants of their health through Well Newham

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Create a community of practice for all link workers, clear in role and remit, a borough team with local neighbourhood and network based knowledge in local teams with specialist support
- Train all frontline workforce in resident centred, strengths based approaches to support the health and wellbeing of residents
- Advocate for the prioritisation of prevention for acute and long term conditions

Natasha Sutton
Social Prescriber

Jacqui Pringle
Community Neighbourhood Link Worker (CNLW)

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKERS

Natasha

Natasha works alongside GPs and other health professionals in six practices, by supporting patients with their non-medical needs. Any social related concerns impacting quality of life are within the criteria for referral into the service.

Natasha works with patients in a holistic way, assessing all areas of their life which could impact their overall satisfaction. Her role includes working collaboratively with the voluntary and public sector to ensure the patient has access to appropriate services.

“Humans are social beings, they are complex and require a social support network to survive. Some are not fortunate to be surrounded by healthy positive relations who offer encouragement to live their full potential. For some, they may lack confidence to initiate change in behaviours. By providing time and effort needed to speak and work with members of the community, we can all witness a change in overall health. We can help people transform their lives for the better, through education, accessible resources and supporting one another.”

Jacqui

Jacqui works in adult social care. One of her main roles is to reduce social isolation and loneliness in the borough. CNLW explore activities, groups and support available in a local area and discuss ways to reconnect an individual to their community.

Jacqui mostly works with older and disabled residents, putting together a six-week action plan, and monitoring progress by tracking improvements in the person’s health and wellbeing.

“Supporting health and wellbeing on a grass roots level is important. It will enable the development of targeted resources for local communities. By having a strong focus on prevention and supporting residents to maintain a healthy lifestyle, especially in later life, will help reduce the risk of depression, anxiety and loneliness, creating better health and stronger networks.”

the challenges we face in these vital areas. I will continue to work with Mayor Fiaz and Chief Executive Althea Loderick to deliver the best possible services so that our most vulnerable residents are supported with care and compassion and have the best quality of life.”

Jaswinder

Following Jaswinder’s retirement in 2008 as a self-employed shop keeper, she has been an active volunteer in Newham. Her volunteering has included supporting people with dementia as well as helping out at the 2012 Olympics and stewarding at the London Marathon.

Jaswinder has been working with, and supporting, lonely people, the elderly and those with disabilities for the past ten years.

“Being happy and healthy is important for the wellbeing of individuals, and if we all work together to support each other, the world would be a better place. I can see that my volunteering has improved the quality of lives. I have made some fantastic friendships whilst volunteering and these people will be friends for life.”

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Maria Healy
Senior HR Consultant

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Maria is a Senior HR Consultant at OneSource, leading on workplace wellbeing, reward and recognition for Newham Council.

The Workplace Wellbeing strategy is closely connected to the community health and wellbeing strategy. 40% of staff at OneSource live in the community, which means messages promoted in the workplace will reach families and the community of the workforce. It's her job to ensure there is an abundance of resources and access to support at the right time for employees.

"I have a passion for all things wellbeing and truly believe psychological, physical and social wellbeing is the foundation of being a whole person and to have a purpose and meaning in life."

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Maria Iglesias

Head of Operations, Praxis

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Maria leads the delivery of holistic services which support around 2,000 at risk people per year, including the provision of specialist immigration advice. Without free immigration advice, families often cannot access other basic services such as healthcare, free school meals, universal credit and housing. One of their projects, The Praxis' Housing Project, won Homeless Link 2019 Innovation Award and was a finalist of the 2019 Guardian Public Service Awards and 2018 World Habitat Awards.

“We believe that we need to address the root causes of poverty and destitution for people who have migrated – and access to services addressing the health and wellbeing of the community is an important stepping stone. Only then, can all people, including those who have made the UK their home, live in safety and dignity.”

the voluntary, community and faith sector is absolutely critical. During the first wave of COVID-19, many people came forward to help. The amazing network of our COVID-19 Health Champions is an excellent example of how people cared in our communities. Newham belongs to all of us. We all have a responsibility to care for each other. Together we can make a real difference to the lives of our people. Let us help each other to be healthier.”

Tamara

As a local GP, Tamara has daily contact with patients in all walks of their lives, supporting them with a variety of health needs. She works with patients, their families and carers to investigate their concerns, tailor interventions, provide guidance and reassurance when needed.

“I have a specialist interest in diabetes. I would like to reduce diabetes related health inequalities by empowering patients to access the information and education programmes that are available. I believe that developing and promoting culturally appropriate messaging around healthier eating and physical activity will aid self-management and self-care.”

can help with medical treatment but prevention is always better than cure and everyone can do something to improve their own health.”

Mohammed

Mohammed works as a Consultant Cardiologist at Newham University Hospital and the Barts Heart Centre within Barts Health NHS Trust. He works with a team that looks after patients admitted to hospital with acute heart related conditions and supports patients with long-term conditions or suspected heart disease.

He is also part of East London Prevention Group (ELoPE) within Barts Health NHS Trust, whose aim is to help improve heart health and reduce health inequalities, using multifaceted strategies including collaboration with schools, hospitals, primary care and charities.

“I have had a long-standing passion for heart disease prevention. I completed my PhD where I led a randomised controlled clinical trial assessing novel ways of helping people to reduce their risk of a heart attack. After becoming a consultant, I have continued to actively promote heart health in the belief that ‘prevention is better than cure’”.

Dr Muhammad Naqvi
Chair of Newham Clinical Commissioning Group and GP

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Muhammad has worked in Newham as a GP for 12 years. He has recently qualified as a GP trainer. As well as his role as Co-Chair of the Newham Health and Wellbeing Board, he is also involved in patient care.

“As a GP in Newham part of my role is to treat ill health. However, a big part is also to identify opportunities where my colleagues and I in primary care can encourage good health, whether it’s providing patients with the right access to information or encouraging them to get involved in healthy activities. By looking at health in this way, my role begins to have many dimensions and the impact I can have on improving the community’s health significantly increases.”

To get involved with this step, contact adeola.agbebiyi@newham.gov.uk.

Service provision reaches the high standards of access and inclusivity to ensure health and wellbeing for all with a particular emphasis on BAME communities

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Better understanding of the needs of people with disabilities, carers, people with mental health conditions and learning difficulties and multiple challenges across all areas of the health and wellbeing strategy
- Application of learning to design and co design of inclusive supportive strength based initiatives and services

Richard Fradgley
Director of Integrated Care

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Richard is Director of Integrated Care at East London NHS Foundation Trust (ELFT). He works collaboratively with the trust's partners, including other NHS organisations, councils and the voluntary sector to deliver more integrated services and better care and support for the community.

“ELFT have a big commitment to working with other organisations to improve the health of the communities we serve. This means going beyond the care and treatment we provide to trying to focus on what matters to people and communities, which is often beyond health problems, like housing, jobs, income, tackling discrimination, family life and relationships and feeling part of the community. We want to do our bit to make our corner of the world a fairer place to live and work.”

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Ojay Denny

Barista, Trainer and Mentor, Smart Food Champion

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Ojay works as a barista, mentor and trainer at The Gate Library's Smart Café in Forest Gate. He demonstrates that healthy food can be both sustainable and delicious and by creating a welcoming food environment for children, parents are more in control of what their children are eating. He also inspires young people who are NEET (Not in Education, Employment or Training), leaving prison/care or with special educational needs encouraging them to train for a career in food.

“We need shops and cafes where good healthy food is prominent, affordable and in plain sight. When we first started serving better quality coffee, we encouraged people who take their coffee with sugar to try ours without – seven out of ten people discovered they didn't need sugar! I believe that great food spaces are important for the future of Newham, both for social connection and the mental wellbeing of our community.”

To get involved with this step, contact andy.gold@newham.gov.uk.

Change the borough's food culture through a Newham Food Partnership and become a Sustainable Food City

26

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Develop a cross sector forum for food partnership
- Develop an integrated 0-5 pathway supporting parents and children to breastfeed, make a healthy transition to solids, food skills development, healthy food awareness and school readiness for all children
- Build a network of trained Good Food Champions to take the good food message out into our community
- Promote a #MadeInNewham approach where local ingredients are combined with the diverse food knowledge, skills, techniques that already exist in Newham
- Broaden access and increase participation in food growing
- Empower residents to avoid food waste
- Promote Newham as a great place to come to eat and for forward thinking businesses to come to produce food and wholesale to London
- Promote a healthy food culture as integral to workforce wellness and productivity

Ajitha Sajeev

Newham's Street Population Manager and Good Food Champion

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Ajitha received the British Empire Medal for her work supporting rough sleepers into more suitable housing. She is an active champion for food culture and supports the Newham Food Alliance. During lockdown, she diverted surplus food donations to a local charity that helped over 500 people. She also ran cooking sessions on Zoom to keep the older community active and engaged in healthy eating.

I absolutely love cooking especially with fruit and veg from my allotment. Newham is full of so much inspiration for a cook! What's more, I enjoy teaching others – showing adults and children how versatile and fun it can be. I want to make people aware of the fantastic ingredients we have available locally and encourage more people to grow food themselves."

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Address direct food need through the Newham Food Alliance
- Develop the Newham Food Alliance as a gateway into Well Newham services that can address the underlying causes of need
- Ensure that all learners are getting the healthy food they need to start the school day, ready to learn
- Work with schools, youth zones and other partners to ensure that holidays are never a time of hunger for any child
- Address the four A's of food poverty in the commercial food landscape – accessibility, availability, affordability and awareness
- Set standards for food infrastructure in homes, new and old, that support healthy and affordable eating

TRACKING PROGRESS

- By successfully tracking the how many, where and why of residents in food poverty so that we can deliver a comprehensive approach to addressing food poverty, that wherever and however it manifests, is able to address direct need through the Newham Food Alliance and the underlying causes of need through Well Newham

WHO IS INVOLVED

- The Newham Food Alliance
- Partners across education
- Newham Council including markets team, housing enforcement
- National campaigning partners
- Voluntary, Community and Faith Sectors

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Asim Uddin

President of UKIM Masjid Ibrahim and Islamic Centre

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Asim is president of a mosque and is very active in his local community. In March, he was approached by some local residents who were struggling to feed their families during the start of the pandemic. As a result, he decided to set up a local community food hub and be part of the Newham Food Alliance. With a team of volunteers, the community food hub now supplies 800 hot meals a day, as well as handing out and delivering food packages to families wanting to cook from home.

“Food poverty is a real issue and many people don’t know this. The 50 steps is an opportunity to make more people aware and encourage other volunteers to step forward to support their local community food hub.”

To get involved with this step, contact andy.gold@newham.gov.uk or darius.baird@newham.gov.uk.

PRIORITY 7:

Supporting active travel and improved air quality

Steps 28-32

Prioritise actions such as active travel and encouraging use of green spaces to support Climate Now

28

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Completion of Sustainable Development Plans for all key organisations
- Develop Newham plan for mitigation of climate change health impacts
- Implement Newham cycling strategy

TRACKING PROGRESS

- Plans in place
- Reduction of carbon footprint

WHO IS INVOLVED

- Health and Wellbeing Board partners

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Andrew Attfield

Associate Director of Public Health,
Barts Health NHS Trust

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Andrew's role as an Associate Director for Public Health is to work on health improvement of the community. His responsibilities include oversight of work addressing the wider determinants of health including local employment, as well as the improvement of air quality within the hospitals and implementation and support of Active Travel.

“Our goal is to reduce the impact we have on the climate, while improving the economic and social impact we have on the community. As part of our sustainability work, we are an anchor institution framework, which means we are a solid and secure hub for the community.”

To get involved with this step, contact sally.burns@newham.gov.uk or shaan.sharda@newham.gov.uk.

Work in partnership to ensure all residents have access to high quality, green and active spaces in the borough

29

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Develop priority plan for action alongside Parks and Open Spaces strategy

TRACKING PROGRESS

- Measure progress against baseline
- Longer term increased activity, improvements in mental health, reductions in obesity

WHO IS INVOLVED

- Newham Council including Shape Newham
- Voluntary, Community and Faith Sectors

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Forest Gate Community Garden

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Forest Gate Community Garden was set up by five residents in 2013 and is now a registered charity run by local volunteers. They turned a derelict piece of land into a green space for wildlife, plants and people. It's designed to support enjoyment and learning about nature and aims to promote an inclusive community and nurture wellbeing. It is open regularly to visitors. Its volunteers range from skilled gardeners to those wanting to enjoy the social side of volunteering.

“Forest Gate Community Garden is a space for everyone to enjoy. It's run by, and for, the local community. Newham is one of the worst boroughs for air quality, so every green space really matters. Not only does the garden offer an open and fresh place full of wonderful plants to enjoy, it's also a social hub.”

To get involved with this step, contact sally.burns@newham.gov.uk or louise.wilcox@newham.gov.uk.

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Catriona Rowland
Quality Improvement Manager

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Catriona coaches teams within the Newham University Hospital to help improve the quality of services by enabling improvement projects within the intensive care unit and projects that improve the general health and wellbeing of staff. One of the projects she worked on, was the implementation of an infrastructure and support network for staff in the hospital looking to cycle to and from work.

“I wanted to make sure that anyone that wanted to cycle could, regardless of their ability. I wanted to remove any barriers that might prevent someone from cycling - whether that's not having the right equipment, skills or lack of confidence. Being active is crucial for mental and physical health. Not only that, if our staff are more active, they are likely to inspire those around them to be more active too.”

To get involved with this step, contact sally.burns@newham.gov.uk or murray.woodburn@newham.gov.uk.

Bring a public health approach to shaping Healthier Places and Healthy Streets in our communities

- Voluntary, Community and Faith Sectors

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Onome Juliet Eric
Volunteer

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Onome is an Active Newham, British Heart Foundation and COVID-19 Health Champion volunteer in Newham. As part of her involvement as a Health Champion, Onome runs a cycling club.

Onome set up the cycling club to provide people with an opportunity to exercise and socialise during these difficult times. Her goal was to help keep the community healthy – both mentally, physically and emotionally.

“Back in my country cycling was my means of transportation, literally to everywhere. But when I came here, that chance wasn’t available. When the opportunity came to set up a cycling club I jumped at the chance. We have had a range of cycling abilities – from beginners through to experts. It has been great fun.”

To get involved with this step, contact sally.burns@newham.gov.uk or richard.wadey@newham.gov.uk.

Support Schools to be 'Active Travel Beacons'

32

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Support School Active Travel Plans
- Young Air Quality Health Champions
- Targeted anti-idling projects

TRACKING PROGRESS

To get involved with this step, contact sally.burns@newham.gov.uk or joel.mimbo@newham.gov.uk.

PRIORITY 8:
Supporting an active borough

Steps 33-36

Develop and promote a universal offer of sport and physical activity for residents in Newham

33

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Support the development of community facilities as physical activity hubs
- Develop a physical activity offer in a variety of community settings for all residents – parks, libraries, community centres, Voluntary, Community and Faith Sectors
- Maximise the potential of major events, such as the 2022 legacy of the London Olympic and Paralympic Games and national campaigns such as Change4Life, This Girl Can to stimulate a desire to be physically active

TRACKING PROGRESS

- Increased levels of activity

WHO IS INVOLVED

- Newham Council
- Sports and physical activity providers
- National governing bodies of sport

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Christine Ohuruogu
Retired Olympian and law student

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Christine became the first British woman to win a global 400m title, win Olympic and Commonwealth gold, as well as World and European Indoor 4x400m relay gold. As a retired Olympian and Newham resident, Christine is passionate about seeing the area prosper and recognises the role health plays in achieving this. She wants to remove any barriers that are preventing residents from participating in physical activity and sport, particularly young people and believes everyone should have the opportunity to be active.

“We have some fantastic green spaces and leisure facilities in Newham, available for everyone to use. I’d love to help change perceptions that only the very sporty need to stay active. It’s critical for physical and mental health that everyone has an active lifestyle. After all, healthy communities are happy communities.”

To get involved with this step, contact carly.clarke@newham.gov.uk or nicole.napier@newham.gov.uk.

Develop an inclusive programme for the least active adults to participate in sport and physical activity

34

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Work with partners to develop inclusive programmes to support residents with long term conditions, older residents, and disabled people to be physically active as a routine part of social prescribing in the borough
- Develop a network of clubs with disability inclusion embedded into their ethos
- Develop engagement campaigns for under-represented groups

TRACKING PROGRESS

- Targeted programmes in place; measures which support long term behaviour change

WHO IS INVOLVED

- Newham Council
- Sports and physical activity providers
- National governing bodies of sport

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Paul Archer
PE teacher

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Approximately 16 years ago Paul recognised that there were no sports clubs designed for those with a disability. He believed everyone should have equal opportunities to keep fit and to participate in sports. He therefore started his very own disability multi-sports club which began with one participant, his son. It grew organically by word of mouth and has developed into multiple sessions a week for a range of individual needs.

“As a PE teacher, I know how important it is for children and adults to stay active to be both physically and mentally healthy. That’s why I started the multi-sports club for those with a disability. I wanted to make a difference to people’s lives, and over the years I’ve seen how much these sessions can really have a positive impact on the health of residents who often get overlooked when promoting an active lifestyle.”

To get involved with this step, contact nicole.napier@newham.gov.uk or nicole.napier@newham.gov.uk.

Increase participation of children and young people in physical activity and sport

35

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Work with partners to develop and implement a play offer for Newham
- Work with disabled children and young people, young carers, SEND families and those in foster care and their families to identify opportunities for inclusive programmes of sport and physical activities
- Provide high quality physical activity and sports provision for children and young people in a range of settings including children's centres, schools, youth and community settings
- Provide support for talented participants to progress

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Bisi Imafidon

Extended Schools Manager and part-time group exercise instructor/sports coach

TRACKING PROGRESS

- Play offer developed and implemented
- Positive feedback from pupils and parents about the school offer

WHO IS INVOLVED

- activeNewham
- Schools Sports Partnership
- University of East London
- Newham Council including Youth Empowerment team
- National governing bodies of sport
- Voluntary, Community and Faith Sectors

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

During the day, Bisi works at a Newham primary school organising activities for pupils before and after school. In the evenings, at weekends and during school holidays, she helps people of all ages to become more active in her role as a sports coach and group exercise instructor.

“My role in the primary school is to provide pupils with opportunities to become more active before and after school. This may be the only chance these pupils have to participate in sports and activities outside of school. They are provided in a safe and friendly environment and delivered by a familiar face. My short term goal is to create a love of being active. In the longer term, I hope that being healthy becomes part of their every day life.”

To get involved with this step, contact carly.clarke@newham.gov.uk and nicole.napier@newham.gov.uk.

Support place shaping for physical activity, including leisure infrastructure and the wider environment

36

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Develop a leisure infrastructure and asset development plan
- Work in partnership to shape positive environments for physical activity
- Maximise funding opportunities including S106 to enhance existing and create new sports facilities

TRACKING PROGRESS

- Development of a long term vision and strategic plan, including investment requirements for high quality leisure infrastructure in Newham
- Leisure infrastructure plan finalised and implemented

WHO IS INVOLVED

- Newham Council
- Sport England

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Ravinder Bopara
Professional cricketer

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Ravinder is the first Newham born England International cricketer. As an elite sportsman, he is a role model to aspiring sportsmen and women in the borough and spends much of his spare time supporting young cricketers at Frenford Youth Club.

“I was very fortunate growing up to have a local cricket club I could join, which kept me very active and provided me with a safe place to socialise. It’s important that there are physical activities and environments that suit a variety of needs for those in Newham, whether it’s a specific sport, such as a cricket, or general health activities such as walking and cycling.”

To get involved with this step, contact carly.clarke@newham.gov.uk.

PRIORITY 9:

Supporting a Newham of communities where people are better connected and supported

Steps 37-40

Promote and increase opportunities for social connectedness to improve residents' health and wellbeing and reduce isolation and loneliness

37

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Use local knowledge and resource directories to map, effectively communicate (irrespective of language, skills and disability) and deliver community based activities which promote social connections and integration
- Develop an integrated programme of social connectedness with key partners
- Support residents to take social action building on existing and new movements including mutual aid groups and patient participation groups
- Improve levels of digital inclusion

TRACKING PROGRESS

- The Grant Thornton Vibrant Economy Index measures in particular 'community, trust and belonging' index

WHO IS INVOLVED

- Newham Council including community neighbourhoods
- Voluntary, Community and Faith Sectors
- University of East London
- Birkbeck University

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKERS

Mala Muthu
Projects Manager, Skills Enterprise
Birkbeck, University of London

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKERS

Mala

Mala is a projects manager at Skills Enterprise, a charity that supports vulnerable and marginalised people. One of their main services is digital inclusion. Mala feels strongly about the impact a lack of digital skills can have on a person's life – it can lead to poorer health and lower life expectancy, increased loneliness and social isolation and limited access to jobs and education.

“We want all our residents to have the skills they need for modern life. The 50 Steps will help us to highlight some of the not so obvious issues that can have a huge impact on the health of our residents – digital skills can change a person's life and bring them closer to their community.”

To get involved with this step, contact phil.veasey@newham.gov.uk or claire.greszczuk@newham.gov.uk.

Birkbeck, University of London

Birkbeck is London's evening course specialists and a leading research and teaching university. Although their main campus is in central London, they have been working in Newham for over ten years delivering courses and educational outreach work in the borough for learners with non-traditional qualifications and people who face barriers to education such as people seeking asylum and adults who have had a long break since they were last in formal education.

Birkbeck delivers free learning activities in the borough such as the 'Get Started: Big Ideas' programme which brings Birkbeck research to community venues such Stratford Library through free one off lectures and workshops, and their Community Leadership course which brings Newham residents involved in volunteering or community work together to learn, network with one another and share good practice in local venues or on online platforms which people can join from their computer, laptop or phone.

“We know that learning new skills can improve mental wellbeing, boost self-confidence and raise self-esteem. Learning can also be an important way of building social connections – it provides a space for people to come together and meet people with similar interests to them.”

To get involved with this step, contact phil.veasey@newham.gov.uk or claire.greszczuk@newham.gov.uk.

Increase levels of volunteering

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Deliver a borough wide volunteering strategy
- Deliver an agile and fast paced COVID-19 Health Champions Programme
- Build a long term, sustainable approach to the Community Health Champions Programme

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Mike Shallcross

Psychotherapist, software developer and COVID-19 Health Champion

Joanne Dean

HR and Governance Management Consultant and COVID-19 Health Champion

Phyllis Grant

COVID-19 Health Champion

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Mike

Mike works from home as a counsellor and psychotherapist. Being well connected in his local community, he decided to volunteer as a COVID-19 Health Champion.

The champions help Newham residents to remain up-to-date on the latest advice and guidance about the virus. The council supports and keeps in regular contact with the champions so they in turn can provide accurate and vital information to their family, friends and local communities.

To get involved with this step, contact phil.veasey@newham.gov.uk or anne.bowers@newham.gov.uk.

“Newham has many different communities, and things work best when we all get on together and support each other. I don’t have any special role, but I just try to play my part in helping to maintain a thriving and active local area. Plus, it’s a really good feeling, knowing that you are a positive and active member of your local community.”

Joanne

Joanne is a governance and strategic human resource management professional, offering bespoke consultancy, training, development and interim management service solutions to education and charity sector clients. Joanne is also a COVID-19 Health Champion volunteer.

She is the Vice Chair of Newham Sixth Form College Corporation where she serves on the COVID-19 Task Finish Group. This has given her the opportunity to comment on the COVID-19 Risk Assessment and Action Plan, share intelligence gleaned from the COVID-19 Champions Zoom meetings and link key players.

“As somebody who was born, educated, and has always lived in Newham, community and place are important to me. I had felt that as one individual, there was nothing that I could do about the pandemic but then I spotted an advertisement inviting residents to join together; be briefed on the Boroughs latest COVID-19 data, plans, action; pool experiences; skills and ideas with the support of a professional facilitator. This gave me a vehicle through which I could contribute at a difficult time.”

Phyllis

Phyllis is a retired nurse and one of our COVID-19 Health Champions. As a retired nurse, Phyllis has always had a keen interest in health and helping others. Her role as a COVID-19 Health Champion enabled her to give back to the community and support residents at a challenging time.

“If everyone has a healthy lifestyle, it brings a healthy community. Only with good health can a community grow. I hope that as a COVID-19 Health Champion, I will have a positive impact on those around me.”

To get involved with this step, contact phil.veasey@newham.gov.uk or anne.bowers@newham.gov.uk.

Develop strong relationships with the voluntary, community and faith sector to help improve the health and wellbeing of residents

39

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Taskin Saleem

Chief Executive, Subco Trust

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Taskin has been involved with many VCFS organisations over the years, setting up services and campaigning on a range of issues. As part of her current role as Chief Executive of Subco Trust, she has collaborated with both local and national organisations to raise awareness and find solutions around many health and wellbeing issues. More recently as the new Chair of the BAME Working Group, she has the additional responsibility of ensuring that services are accessible and appropriately developed for BAME communities.

“By having access to information and services that are culturally and linguistically appropriate we can ensure that each individual engages in a way that is practical and personalised to their circumstances.”

To get involved with this step, contact helena.taylor@newham.gov.uk or samantha.latouche@newham.gov.uk.

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKERS

Bailey Mitchell

Interim Borough Director at East London NHS Foundation Trust

Sandra Amoah

Chair of ASK and Co-chair of the co-production forum for health and adult social care

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKERS

Bailey

Bailey is involved in co-producing a new model for mental health services that will be adopted nationwide. Newham is 1 of 12 regions in the country that is helping to do this. This model is revolutionising the way we look at mental health services, moving away from just treating the symptoms of a condition in isolation and towards a more holistic and integrated approach.

“We want Newham to be healthy in every way. Thinking about healthcare is often overshadowed by physical health, but having good mental health is just as vital because it can go on to effect so many things in life, including physical health.”

To get involved with this step, contact phil.veasey@newham.gov.uk or fiona.hackland@newham.gov.uk.

Sandra

As someone who has struggled with mental health herself, Sandra is incredibly passionate about making Newham a more mental health friendly borough. She is Chair of ASK, a user led participation group that offers organisations the opportunity to listen, learn and ultimately adapt the services they offer to those that suffer with mental health issues.

“There is huge stigma that exists around mental health issues and this is something that has to change. If we can make Newham a mental health friendly borough, we can really change people’s lives. Everyone should understand mental health and everyone struggling with mental health should have access to the support they need at their fingertips. Let’s all be more open and honest about mental health.”

To get involved with this step, contact phil.veasey@newham.gov.uk or fiona.hackland@newham.gov.uk.

PRIORITY 10:
Working towards a smoke

- Voluntary, Community and Faith Sectors

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Cathy Falvey-Browne
Consultant Midwife

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Cathy is the professional lead for Public Health and Midwife led care at Newham Maternity. Her role is multifaceted and includes leading on some public health initiatives, such as smoking cessation.

“We are mostly dealing with healthy women who are generally motivated to make a positive behavioural change that can impact on the health and wellbeing of them and their babies. We provide information and support to women who want to stop smoking. We use the latest reports and documents, like Better Births and Saving Babies Lives Care Bundle to improve outcomes.”

To get involved with this step, contact elizabeth.owen@newham.gov.uk or kieran.scott@newham.gov.uk.

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKERS

Angela Bartley

Consultant in Public Health

Bahia Gherabli

Team Leader, HLC, Stop Smoking Advisor, Jetsol Pharmacy

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKERS

Angela

Angela works for East London NHS Foundation Trust as a consultant in public health to better understand the health needs of the local population and examine some of the causes of poor health and wellbeing such as smoking. She works with the council and mental health service users to explore how people with poor mental health can be better supported to quit smoking and remain smoke free.

“Data shows that compared to the general population people experiencing poor mental health are much more likely to smoke and don’t do as well in community stop smoking services. If mental health service users get the support they need to quit smoking we know it will improve their health almost immediately and improve their finances as well. In the long term we know this will help close the gap of 20 years in life expectancy between people experiencing serious mental health problems and the general population. Smoking is the single biggest factor causing this difference.”

To get involved with this step, contact elizabeth.owen@newham.gov.uk or kieran.scott@newham.gov.uk.

Bahia

Bahia and the team at Jetsol Pharmacy support local residents to stop smoking.

“We aim to give the best support to our residents. We play a crucial role in motivating them to quit for good. We explain to them the principles of nicotine, what cigarettes contain and how it harms their health to enable them to make an informed choice about quitting.

Stopping smoking brings a lot of benefits to the health – it improves blood circulation, lowers blood pressure and allows a better lung function.”

To get involved with this step, contact elizabeth.owen@newham.gov.uk or kieran.scott@newham.gov.uk.

PRIORITY 11:
Building a borough of health

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Burhan Uddin
Service Manager, MoneyWorks

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Burhan is the Service Manager at MoneyWorks, a service that exclusively offers support to Newham residents who may be struggling with debt or the everyday cost of living. They help residents with the payment of utility bills, whether that's providing energy vouchers for emergency support or offering advice on how residents can reduce bills, renew tariffs and get reconnected.

“We are essentially helping residents put food on the table and keep warm. Our goal is to understand their complete situation and provide them with the holistic support they need. If we can't assist them, we usually know another service that can. There is a direct link between mental health and financial difficulties and it's our job to help reduce the financial burden as much as possible and make sure people keep warm and healthy during winter.”

To get involved with this step, contact hafsa.elmi@newham.gov.uk or burhan.uddin@newham.gov.uk.

Tackle levels of overcrowding in Newham homes

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Toby Scrutton
The Landlords Forum

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Toby is the fourth generation running a family property business and has been involved in property in Newham since 1980. He is part of the Landlords Forum, a growing group of landlords who are working with partners to ensure that the accommodation in the borough is of good quality and well managed – housing that is safe and free from damp and disrepair is really important to support good health.

“The private rented sector houses some of the borough’s most vulnerable families and residents. As landlords, it’s our responsibility to supply these families with housing that is of high quality. Everyone is entitled to live in a decent home and the Landlords Forum is designed to achieve this. Our goal is to work to improve local housing conditions in the private sector, which in turn will have a positive impact on Newham, whilst also making the area more attractive for investors.”

To get involved with this step, contact sally.burns@newham.gov.uk or helen.masterson@newham.gov.uk.

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Lorraine Tabone
Lola's Homeless

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Lola's Homeless is a community group supporting the homeless in Newham. After her own experiences of being homeless and an encounter with a young homeless girl called Chloe, Lorraine decided to set up the group. They offer a wide range of support to those sleeping rough, including food, clothing, advice, paying for accommodation and attending hospital appointments.

"I run the community group via Facebook and have relied solely on local residents when I post appeals for support. I couldn't have done it without all these amazing volunteers. Not only does being homeless impact your physical health, we have found that most people living on the streets have an underlying mental health problem too. There is more to be done and I will continue to be the voice for homeless people in Newham."

To get involved with this step, contact karl.henson@newham.gov.uk or simon.reid@newham.gov.uk.

Reduce the numbers of children living in temporary accommodation (family homelessness)

46

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Jane Williams
CEO, The Magpie Project

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

In 2017, Jane and some other concerned mothers and aunties set up The Magpie Project, with the purpose to make mum's and children's lives better during their time in temporary accommodation. They provide practical support and advice to mothers and children under five in temporary or insecure accommodation.

“We believe all children have a right to a secure, safe place to play, healthy food, engaged parents and access to support, no matter what their family circumstances. We are also determined to be the voice for those that can't be heard on the housing debate. We believe that poor housing and the health inequalities and problems it creates is everybody's problem – but also, luckily, everybody can do something to help solve the issue.”

To get involved with this step, contact hafsa.elmi@newham.gov.uk.

Support the design of health promoting and inclusive homes

47

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

- Establish baseline through housing health needs assessment and identify vulnerable groups
- Develop a Health Impact Assessment Guide for new developments
- Work in partnership to promote broadband connectivity (digital inclusion) in social housing
- Maximise funding opportunities including S106 to enhance existing environments and create health promoting neighbourhoods

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Florence Acen

Team Leader Newham

Citizens Advice East End

(back row, second from left in photo)

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Florence helps run advice services for Newham residents at Citizens Advice East End. Citizens Advice are a local independent charity and are members of the national Citizens Advice network. They provide advice and casework on debt, welfare benefits, employment rights, housing, basic immigration, consumer, family and personal issues. Last year, they helped 37,000 people increase their incomes by £22 million through support such as, savings on their gas bills, reversing incorrect benefit decisions, budgeting, writing off and rescheduling debts.

“When people come to us for advice, they often tell us how stressed they are, and one of the amazing things about this job is seeing people move forward and resolve their issues. It’s fantastic to see what a positive impact this can have on their health and wellbeing.”

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Mathew Sheehan

Managing Director
Enabled Living Healthcare
Health and social care service

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Enabled Living Healthcare provide a range of services that help Newham residents live the life they choose. They offer community equipment, sensory support and wheelchair and specialist seating services to support people to continue to live independently in their own homes. They are proud to be a Newham Council owned company and have been an accredited London Living Wage employer since 2018.

“It is extremely important to us that our staff get paid a fair wage, which is why we are committed to being a London Living Wage employer. By paying the London Living Wage we make sure our own employees are not subjected to unnecessary pressures from low pay, which can affect their wellbeing and inadvertently cause damage to their health and the health of their families.”

Maximise the contributions of Newham's Anchor institutions to tackle socio-economic inequalities

HOW WILL WE DO THIS

In-line with the North East London Anchor Charter:

- Widening access to employment and training: As major employers, Newham Council, along with NHS trusts and Universities, can contribute substantially to the local economy by upskilling and employing local people and committing to inclusive practices.
- Procurement for social value: The NHS and local authorities spend large sums of money on goods and services. This spending could be used more effectively to support local inclusive growth and reduce inequalities.
- Maximising the social value of our buildings and land: The NHS and local authorities command a substantial amount of capital and physical assets. We should maximise their value for our local communities.
- Supporting a greener and healthier future: Our health and the environment are inextricably linked. Therefore, mitigating our environmental impact can contribute to reducing health inequalities.

All of these actions will contribute to Newham's Community Wealth Building Strategy.

TRACKING PROGRESS

- Progress and implementation will be tracked through the North East London Anchor Charter monitoring framework.

WHO IS INVOLVED

- Newham Council
- NHS Trusts
- Universities
- Large businesses

NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Marie Gabriel CBE

Chair of the North East London Integrated Care System

ABOUT THE NEWHAM CHANGEMAKER

Marie is chair of the North East London Integrated Care System, chair of Norfolk and Suffolk Foundation Trust and chair of the NHS Race and Health Observatory. Her honours include Freedom of the London Borough of Newham and the Tony Cheeseman Award in recognition of her contribution to equality and the communities of East London. She was recently named on the 2020 Football Black List for her work with West Ham Foundation and as one of 80 most influential people in health due to her work on race equality.

“I am proud to have started my life in Canning Town and still live in the borough today. I have worked in health and care for over 20 years and voluntarily within the voluntary sector all my adult life. My ambition has always been to radically address the social injustice, inequity and health inequalities faced by the communities I live within. I am specifically dedicated to reducing the health inequalities that exist within our borough, which have been pushed into the spotlight recently due to COVID-19.”
